

“The Wishwall” Joins the FNL Network Lineup

In an effort to deliver internationally-minded and socially conscious content to its global viewership, FNL Network is excited to announce that “The Wishwall” has joined its tapestry of incisive and meaningful lifestyle programming.

Born from the creative genius of Simonetta Lein, “The Wishwall” follows the viral extension of the work of The Wishwall Foundation, an international non-profit dedicated to making wishes come true. Both in online as well as physical forms, the Wishwall serves as a forum for individuals from all different backgrounds and experiences to voice their wishes, both big and small. Simonetta Lein, affectionately known as “The Wishmaker,” utilizes her vast network and persistent optimism to manifest these seemingly impossible dreams, whether it be sitting at the front row of New York Fashion Week or having a street named in memoriam for a lost sister.

“We’re thrilled to be working with Simonetta and her team from The Wishwall Foundation, and are excited for our viewers to see this new show, which is bound to make everyone smile,” says CEO and President of FNL Network Rocco Leo Gaglioti.

“Connecting with FNL Network is so exciting, as it gives The Wishwall Foundation yet another opportunity to inspire the world and show how we can use all the energy from the fashion and the entertainment industries to pay it forward,” says Simonetta Lein, influencer and public figure. “By going international with FNL Network on Amazon Prime, The Wishwall Foundation can continue its work of uplifting the world and making wishes come true.”

Via exclusive distribution on Amazon Prime by FNL Network, “The Wishwall” chronicles this selfless work, as well as the heart-warming consequences.
